CSA Offers Knowledge to Corporations in “New Europe”

CSA's new Associate office in Skopje will facilitate expansion of its expertise

Burnham, UK, March 10, 2008: CSA has partnered with the leading Macedonian training company in order to provide the services of speakers in “New Europe.” The new Associate, CSA Speakers @ Triple S, will provide knowledge to corporations in the region by offering the top names on the speaker circuit within the field of professional business, academia, politics, sport, entertainment and the arts.

“We are very pleased to have the new Associate office's headquarters in Skopje, Macedonia as the location provides a large business radius within ‘New Europe’ and will also be able to serve Serbia, Slovenia and Croatia,” Emilia Knight, Global Business Development Manager at CSA, stated.

The regional partner is the only specialized training centre in Macedonia offering its skills within successful strategies for sales and services. The knowledge and methodology embedded in their training programmes is used by the world's leading companies. CSA Speakers @ Triple S will take advantage of the many years of experience and understanding that the training centre has attained together with the know-how and expertise of CSA in the speaker business – with its established global reputation of 25 years.

Marija Solevska, Executive Director of CSA Speakers @ Triple S, says, “We are more than happy to have found an ideal partner for completing our mission – to promote positive values and offer advanced business knowledge and intelligence that will lead our clients forward in achieving their goals. We enthusiastically believe that providing speakers in corporations throughout the area is going to move the region forward, in terms of economic development.”

CSA Speakers @ Triple S will commence in mid-March 2008 but all inquiries are welcome before this date.
