Dr. Marc Faber

Economist and Master Forecaster

"The iconoclastic emerging markets specialist"

Dr. Marc Faber is a leading investment advisor and fund manager. He is probably best known as the publisher of a widely read monthly investment newsletter The Gloom, Boom and Doom an in depth economic and financial report which highlights unusual investment opportunities.

TOPICS:

- Business Trends and Future
- Global Politics
- The Future of the World's Financial Markets
- Successful Fund Management

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English and German.

PUBLICATIONS:

2002 Tomorrow's Gold - Asia's Age of Discovery

2002 The Great Swindle

1998 Riding the Millennial Storm: Marc Faber's Path to Profit in the Financial Markets

IN DETAIL:

The report aims, based on economic, social and historical trends, to warn investors when investment themes have become widely accepted and are, therefore, highly priced and risky. Born and educated in Switzerland, Marc achieved a PhD in Economics at the age of 24. Between 1970 and 1978, he worked for White Weld & Company Limited in New York, Zurich and Hong Kong. From 1978 to February 1990, he was the Managing Director of Drexel Burnham Lambert (HK) Ltd. In 1990, he set up his own business, Marc Faber Limited, of which he is the CEO and also acts as an investment advisor and fund manager. He has a reputation for being a contrarian investor and has been called 'Doctor Doom' for a number of years.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

A regular speaker at various investment seminars, Marc Faber is well known for his "contrarian" investment approach. He is in the privileged position to be able to offer decision makers essential information crucial for companies wishing to do business in today's volatile markets.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Audiences are highly impressed by Marc Faber's well researched and brilliantly delivered presentations which are filled with numerous investment pointers and opportunities.