

Madame Catherine Deneuve

Award Winning Actress

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Catherine is a two-time Cesar Award-winning, BAFTA Award-nominated and Academy Award-nominated French actress. In 2006 she was the Head juror of the Venice Film Festival and in 2007 she visited Argentina to receive a honorary award in the San Luis Cine International Festival.

Catherine is universally hailed as one of the "grandes dames"

In detail

She made her screen debut at the age of 13, with a role in the 1956 film Les Collégiennes, and went on to make several films with directors such as Roger Vadim before getting her breakthrough role in Jacques Demy's musical Les Parapluies de Cherbourg (1964). In the 1990s, Deneuve garnered further international acclaim for her roles in several films. In 1994 she was Vice President on the jury of the Cannes Film Festival. In 1998, she won acclaim and the Volpi Cup at the Venice Film Festival for her performance in Place Vendôme. In the 1990s she worked in numerous films; in 1999 alone she appeared in no less than five films.
