

Chris Dugdale

One of the World's Premier Close Up Magicians

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Chris Dugdale provides world class entertainment and has become a world famous author of his own magic and lecturer on the psychology of magic. Performance is his real passion and in 2003 he became the first magician in history to entertain Her Majesty the Queen and The United Nations in the same year. 2007 saw him entertain at the "Richest Gathering Of Human Beings Ever", and the following year he was asked back by UEFA to entertain at the UEFA Cup Final. Chris is currently working on an international television series.

In detail

Chris Dugdale started learning magic at the age of just five. At the age of 18, he became the youngest member of the world renowned Magic Circle and successfully levitated a presenter on BBC's Blue Peter live in front of 6 million people. Shortly afterwards he was promoted to the highest honour possible by award, becoming an Associate of the Inner Magic Circle. The day he graduated from Leicester University, armed with a degree in Psychology, he became a full-time magician. He is the author of 'Close Up Success' - the definitive guide to close up magic along with colleague Phil Jay.

What he offers you

An international award winning performer, Chris Dugdale's magic has taken him around the world many times, from Dubai to Las Vegas. His schedule has included more than 100 appearances in the Monte Carlo Casino in Las Vegas and over 50 shows at the world famous Hollywood Magic Castle. Other major highlights include performances for major celebrities, Heads of State and Royal Family Members. He can tailor his performance precisely to your audience - from an intimate party of four to a packed auditorium.

How he presents

Chris Dugdale is a world leader in his chosen field of magic. Watching him perform is an experience you will never forget. With a degree in psychology Chris has a deep understanding of human beings and this can be seen in the versatility of his performances. He is intimate, highly professional, with real eye to eye contact.

Languages

He presents in English. He is a highly skilled communicator, fluent in French and German.
