

Dame Ellen MacArthur

Record Breaking Single-handed Round the World
Yachtswoman

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

In February 2005 Ellen MacArthur was welcomed back to Britain by huge crowds after sailing solo around the world in record time. In recognition of this amazing feat she was made a Dame. Ellen's drive and determination are awe-inspiring, thousands follow her race progress on the Internet and hoards of people flock down to the quayside to see her off on a race. Ellen's record is a feat of mammoth endurance, speed and sheer physical and mental willpower in the face of overwhelming adversity.

"Professional yacht racing is difficult enough. MacArthur hoists the challenge to a higher level: solo trips around the globe in record time" TIME

In detail

Ellen is a truly remarkable young woman, in addition to being the fastest woman and youngest person to circumnavigate the earth in a solo yacht race, she is also one of the youngest people ever to be awarded the MBE.
