

Erich J Lejeune
Founder & CEO of ce Consumer

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Erich J. Lejeune is the Founder and CEO of the Executive Board of ce Consumer Electronic AG, a high-tec and Internet company. In 1999, a year after the company's entry into the "new market" of the German stock exchange, Erich Lejeune founded the world's first virtual stock exchange for chips, with 500 companies participating worldwide.

"A master in Motivation"

In detail

In 1998 the European Institute of Economics (EWI) awarded Erich Lejeune with the Euro Crystal Globe for his achievements and contributions to the European train of thought. In 1999 he also received the Entrepreneur of the Year Award. He is an advocate of long-lasting success through courage, confidence and positive thinking based on the example of his own life and success. Lejeune's biggest contribution has been his ability to recognise the importance of the microchip as the building block for the future and acted accordingly.
