

Dr. Helmut Kohl Bundeskanzler a.D. MdB

Former German Chancellor

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

With 16 years in power, a post-war political record, and having won four consecutive general elections Helmut Kohl is arguably Germany's most successful Chancellor. He played a significant role in European integration and was a key player in ending the Cold War. Undoubtedly, one of his finest hours came, when Germany was re-unified in 1990. Most recently Dr Kohl received the 2005 International Leadership Award for contributions to global peace and security from the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

A proven political visionary

In detail

He studied history in Heidelberg and in 1966 he became Minister-president of Rhineland-Palatinate. In 1973 he was elected as Chairman of the German Christian Democratic Union, CDU. He was elected German Chancellor in 1982.
