

Henning Christophersen

Renowned Global Economist, Vice President of the EU
Commission 1985 - 1995

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Henning Christophersen is the former vice-president of the European Commission with responsibility for the economic and financial affairs of the Union. He is one of Denmark's best known and most respected politicians, having held the posts of Foreign Minister, Finance Minister and Deputy Prime Minister. Since 1989 he has been the EU's representative in a number of supranational organisations, including the OECD, IMF, G7, EBRD and the EIB.

"Henning Christophersen is a proven political visionary"

In detail

An economics graduate of Copenhagen University, early on in his career Henning Christophersen became a member of the Danish Parliament in 1971. In 1978 he became President of the Liberal Party and from 1979-1982 a member of the Board of the Danish Central Bank. Whilst vice-president of the Commission he was responsible for European Monetary Union (EMU) and the early consultations and strategic planning for the single European Currency.

What he offers you

Henning Christophersen draws on his considerable expertise and own personal experiences to concisely analyse the current worldwide political and economic situation.

How he presents

Henning Christophersen is a skilled communicator who delivers his candid presentations with charisma, guile and character, giving unparalleled insights into the 21st century global landscape.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Topics

How to Improve Europe's Competitiveness
The Macro-economic Prospects for Europe
EU Integration of Eastern and Central Europe
Implications of Further Expansion of the EU
Transeuropean Networks and Infrastructure
Transformation of the Former Soviet Republic Economies