

Ian Irving

The Variety Club of Great Britain's Captain for 2010,
Comedian & Entertainer

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Ian Irving was chosen to be the Captain for 2010 by The Variety Club of Great Britain. When Ian performed at the London Palladium, he was on the bill with Dame Vera Lynn, David Copperfield, and Mike Yarwood, and for a second time Ian supported Richard Digance on tour which culminated in him performing at Her Majesty's Theatre, (London) with great success. One of his many sporting achievements includes winning The Jimmy Tarbuck Golf Classic.

"One of the most popular and sought after entertainers on the After Dinner Speaking circuit"

In detail

The Essex born comedian was first seen on UK television on New Faces. Following this he also appeared on Surprise, Surprise, which led to a nationwide theatre tour with Richard Digance. After being the warm-up artist for Les Dawson's show Blankety Blank, Ian was invited back by the BBC to work on Brush Strokes, Bread, Fast Friends, and In Sickness and in Health as the warm-up artist. His appearance on Celebrity Squares and Pebble Mill led to his own half hour TV show called Stand and Deliver. In a one off special he supported Lionel Richie in London for the Music Industry Awards dinner.

What he offers you

Ian Irving is a regular on the corporate after dinner circuit, using his great charm and comedic talent to send audiences home with vibrant memories of a most enjoyable evening. He also acts as compere and auctioneer ensuring that events go with a swing to help raise much needed money - whatever the cause. Golf is his speciality subject, as he plays in many corporate events during the year. He is a performer with a remarkable track record in the provision of first-rate entertainment at some of the most prestigious venues around the world.
