

John Bishop

One of the Best Talents on the UK Comedy Circuit

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

John Bishop is the multi-award winning comedian and star of For One Night Only, Michael McIntyre's Roadshow, Skins, The Late Late and 8 Out of 10 Cats. Since he burst onto the comedy scene he has gained a national reputation, become a broadcaster on Radio City 96.7 and a playwright with his Radio 4 play, Happy Families. This has all been achieved by someone who still had a day job!

"A Comedy Revolutionary not to be missed" The Independent

In detail

John performed stand-up comedy for the first time in 2000, and the following year made it to the final of all the major new act competitions, including the Daily Telegraph Open Mic Awards, the BBC New Comedy Awards and the City Life North West Comedian of The Year Award, which he won. In 2002, he was named best newcomer by BBC Radio Merseyside, and in 2004 he won the North West Comedy Award for best stand-up. In 2009, he was shortlisted for the Edinburgh Comedy Awards.

What he offers you

The consummate Liverpoolian comedian, John's material is drawn from his life's experiences, from fatherhood to cycling around the world, to playing semi-professional football, to working as a nightclub doorman. His mix of hilarious observational comedy and tear-jerking pathos leaves his audiences feeling like they have just made a new best friend.

How he presents

With razor sharp wit, John is a charming performer, a brilliant comic and a great storyteller, guaranteed to have any audience rolling in the aisles with his hysterically funny routines. A very confident performer, who builds a good rapport with the audience very quickly whose stand up style is warm, charming and inoffensive.

Languages

He presents in English.
