"One of the UK's most versatile and popular impressionists and comedians" Celador

In detail

Jon first made international headlines by calling the switchboard of no. 10 Downing Street and fooling the operators with his 'William Hague' impression. Jon then found to his delight that he was talking directly to Prime Minister, Tony Blair, live on London's Capital FM, from 10 Downing Street. He was awarded his own radio series Dead Ringers, which has won the British Comedy Award for 'Best Radio Comedy', the Sony Gold Radio Academy Award and the Broadcasting Press Guild Award for 'Best Radio Programme'. Due to its phenomenal success it transferred from Radio 4 to BBC television. Jon also has a multitude of other television credits to his name including Alter Ego, 2DTV and The Impressionable Jon Culshaw.
