

Lene Gammelgaard

Human Resource Development Specialist and Mountaineer

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Lene Gammelgaard is a psychotherapist and a lawyer. She was the first Scandinavian woman to climb Everest, a success overshadowed by eight team members' deaths, yet her story of survival and accomplishment is riveting. Cofounder of several drug treatment centres; she also founded a consulting business, focusing on human resource development.

'We must adjust to life as life will not adjust to us.' Lene Gammelgaard

In detail

A writer and therapist, she uses the outdoors as a learning environment for her human resource development studies. Based in Denmark, she also pursues her HR studies as a PhD researcher for the University of Edinburgh.

What she offers you

A truth seeking person, she reveals how to improve your success rate by looking at the interrelationship between success and failure. Although driven by discovery in a much explored world she shows you the benefits of any discovery being new to you.

How she presents

With a balance of passion and realism she animates her adventures and subsequent studies.

Topics

The Three Big Rs: Big Risk, Big Responsibility, Big Reward
Pursuing Excellence
Teamwork and Leadership
Turning Crisis into Success
Climbing High: Breaking Barriers
Personal Development and Motivation

Languages

She presents in English, Danish and German.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what she could bring to your event.

How to book her?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

watch video

Publications

2000

Victory of Hope Only available in Danish

1999

Climbing High: A Woman's Account of Surviving the Everest Tragedy