

Dr. Peter Scholl-Latour

Prolific German Journalist

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Dr. Peter Scholl-Latour is widely acknowledged as one of Germany's most prolific journalists with a reputation for hard hitting reports from the World's most volatile trouble spots. He has written a number of best-sellers and appears regularly on television and radio. Perhaps the highlight of Peter's outstanding career was when he accompanied the Imam Khomeini upon his return to Teheran from his Parisian exile, the only Western journalist chosen to do so. In 2006 he wrote for the TV documentary Russia Surrounded: Putin's Empire faces NATO, China and Islam.

"Peter has reported firsthand on numerous major world events"

In detail

Dr. Scholl-Latour read Arabic Studies at the Universities of Mainz, Paris and Beirut, before embarking on his career in journalism firstly as the ARD correspondent in Africa and Paris before working as programme director for WDR. From 1975 to 1983 he managed the ZDF television studios in Paris, moving on to become a member of the Gruner and Jahr Board of Directors and in 1988 Editor of Stern magazine. In recognition of his outstanding contribution to journalism he has received numerous awards including the Adolf-Grimme-Preis, the Strassburger Goldmedaille and the Deutsche Fernsehpreis amongst others.
