

Tony Bullimore

International Yachtsman, Adventurer, Writer and Entrepreneur

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Over the last 30-years, Tony Bullimore has sailed more than 300,000 miles, crossed the Atlantic more than 30-times, and has won more than 150 trophies, to establish himself as one of the top yachtsmen of the last hundred years. In 1997 Tony's racing yacht capsized and was slowly sinking into the icy waters of the Southern Ocean sheltering in a tiny air pocket in the upturned hull 1500 miles from Australia. Determination kept him alive for nearly five-days underneath his upturned hull.

"One of the Top Yachtsmen of the Century"

In detail

Tony was elected Yachtsman of the Year in 1985 for his outstanding achievements. He is a patron of M.C.I, the J.A.C.C. (Jamaica Age Care Charity), Brainwave (The Kerland Foundation, providing therapy for brain injured children) and is also a patron of the Fast Track Trust Ltd, helping disadvantaged people in Bristol. Tony actively supports many other worthy organisations, such as Special Olympics, which is very close to his heart.
