

Prof. Amin Rajan

CEO of CREATE & Global Authority on Leadership

"Amin's work has proved so influential that he now provides leadership coaching to top executives and investment specialists"

Amin Rajan is CEO of CREATE, a pan-European network of prominent researchers undertaking high level advisory assignments for the UK government, City institutions, multinational companies and international bodies such as the EU, OECD and ILO. He was awarded the Aspen Institute's Prize in leadership (1998) for his research.

TOPICS:

- Leadership in the Age of Dilemmas
- Diversity and the Bottom Line
- Global Investment Management
- Developing Tomorrow's Visionary Leaders
- Managing Knowledge and Talent

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2006 Comply and Prosper:
Managing People Risk Arising from Regulation
- 2004 Building Capability for the 21st Century
- 2003 Revolutionary Shifts,
Evolutionary Responses:
Global Investment
Management in the 2000's
- 2001 Harnessing Creativity to Improve the Bottom Line

Tomorrow's Organisation:
New Mindsets, New Skills
- 2000 Fund Management: New Skills
for a New Age
- 1999 Good Practices in Knowledge
Creation and Exchange

IN DETAIL:

Amin Rajan was formerly an economic advisor at the National Economic Development Office, Cabinet Office and HM Treasury. He has carried out numerous studies for the UK Government and international bodies and advises CEOs and investment specialists of a number of international companies. He is a visiting professor at the Cass Business School, London Metropolitan University, Centre for Leadership Studies at Exeter University and has published several books and articles on leadership, business cultures, globalisation, new technologies, diversity and new business models.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing from his extensive research involving outstanding business leaders, Amin Rajan offers decision makers around the world essential advice on leadership and emerging business strategies. He also gives valuable insights into the links between vision, values, cultures, structures and the need for diversity in the workplace.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Appearing regularly on business television as well as at numerous events around the world, Amin Rajan's high content presentations are filled with invaluable information from his research perfectly tailored to suit individual client's needs.