

Roy Walker

Comedian and TV Gameshow Host

"To be honest, when I am on stage, I'm just being myself"

Roy Walker came to fame through top ITV game show Catchphrase. Following this he then won a whole new fan base through his regular Carpark Catchphrase feature on Chris Moyles' radio show as well as appearing on Peter Kay's Phoenix Nights. He now tours the world, performing stand-up to packed venues around the globe.

TOPICS:

- Quiz
- Entertainment
- Awards
- Host

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Roy broke through to success and national prominence when he recorded the highest marks ever given to a comedian on television's New Faces. It was the start of a television career that has blossomed ever since and has seen him starring on all the major TV variety shows. It was at the beginning of 1987 that he hosted his first series of Catchphrase which went on to become a very popular and high-rating addition to the ITV Network scheduling each year. More recently it has also been screened on Challenge TV.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Roy's lugubrious style of humour, his dead-pan expression and his approach to entertaining have paid handsome dividends. His casual line in patter has endeared him to audiences all over the country.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

A true professional and affable character, Roy Walker is an excellent host and his sharp wit and quick retorts are always well-received.