

Russ Abbot

Outstanding Comedian

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Russ Abbot, is a musician, comedian and actor who first came to public notice during the 70's as a singer and drummer, later forging a prominent solo career as a television comedian with his own weekly show on British television. His career has continued with a shift into more mainstream serious acting in television shows, series and stage productions. The Russ Abbot Show showcased his talents as a comedian and entertainer. He recently appeared in the West End production of Oliver and has appeared in Last of the Summer Wine on BBC One.

"Consummate professional and a talented performer

In detail

Throughout the 80's Russ, the all round entertainer, attracted millions of TV viewers, won countless awards, released many hit records and sold out tours, summer seasons and pantomimes. In 1993, Russ appeared in his first straight acting role in the bittersweet comedy drama September Song. Since then Russ has moved towards more demanding acting parts in drama and comedy including Shakespeare. Theatre work has taken preference to TV.

What he offers you

Russ Abbot is one of Britain's best loved and well known television personalities. He brings his own unique brand of entertainment and humour to any event and is always a popular choice whether hosting an awards ceremony or delivering a hilarious after dinner speech.

How he presents

A true professional and experienced television personality, Russ is charming, charismatic and an excellent host.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Topics

Host
Entertainment
Awards
Show Business