

Ruud Gullit

Football Coach & Former International Player

"One of the most internationally recognized footballers of the last decade"

Ruud Gullit is a world-renowned Dutch football coach and former player. Quite simply a soccer phenomenon - stylish, articulate, and affable, he was twice voted World Football Player of the Year and was widely regarded as one of the World's best ever players. He is now a regular and valued pundit on a variety of TV channels throughout Europe and has worked for Supersport in South Africa and Super Soccer League in Malaysia.

TOPICS:

- Motivation
- Sport
- Teambuilding
- Leadership

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English, Italian, Dutch and German.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2016 How To Watch Football
- 1998 Ruud Gullit - My Autobiography

IN DETAIL:

He was the captain of the Netherlands national team that was victorious at Euro 88 and was also a member of the squad for the 1990 World Cup. Named European Footballer of the Year in 1987 and World Soccer Player of the Year in 1987 and 1989, he was a versatile player, playing in numerous positions during his career. He is the Ambassador for many large brands and organisations: banks, airlines, watches, beer and soft drink brands. He works consistently with UEFA and their partners around the Champions League and the Euros and with other sponsors.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Having always been a motivator and leader on the pitch, he continues to use this skill to deliver speeches and talks at conferences for high-end management. His commanding personality and humour always make him a hugely popular choice.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Ruud is an experienced speaker and media personality whose inspiring presentations are always well received and highly enjoyable. Ruud is equally at home whether speaking, presenting awards or hosting an event.