

Men in Coats

Masters of Visual and Physical Comedy

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Men in Coats have gone from winning the Hackney Empire Best New Act Award in 2001 to being the most talked about live comedy act of 2002. After returning from the Edinburgh Fringe Festival where they debuted with their full length show to sell-out audiences and critical acclaim, they ended last year with their performance at The Royal Variety Show, shown on BBC1.

"Men in Coats proved to be one of the evening's biggest successes" The Stage.

In detail

2003 saw Men in Coats starring in BBC2's new weekly Saturday night show The Live Floor Show. They were also smash hits at the Melbourne Comedy show in Australia and have been busy recently with a full-scale tour of the UK and numerous TV appearances.

What they offer you

Absurd and delirious, as funny as it is clever, there are no easy predictable routes to comedy for these boys. This is a totally original comedy experience and one of the funniest shows around.

How they present

These manic parka-clad comics reduce the audience to helpless laughter within seconds, as balloon faces emerge from their furry hoods, and barely let up for the full 30 minutes.
