

Allan Lamb

Cricket Legend, Author & Entrepreneur

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Allan Lamb's impressive international cricketing career, spanning the decade 1982-92, included 79 test matches for England and 128 One Day Internationals. He captained England three times against the West Indies and Australia and captained Northampton CC from 1989 to 1994. Allan scored 4654 test runs with 14 centuries and 33502 first class runs, scoring 89 first class hundreds. Allan retired from cricket in 1995 and has set up his own company Allan Lamb Associates, a corporate hospitality, sports marketing and travel company.

"Allan Lamb is a globally admired cricket legend"

In detail

Born in South Africa, Alan began his cricketing career playing for his country's Western Province team. In 1978, he moved to England and signed to Northamptonshire. Since retiring from cricket, Allan has published his autobiography called 'Silence of the Lamb' which was released in 1996. He has also done television work including working on Sky Sports and Channel 5 as an analyst. In 1980 he was awarded Cricketer of the Year.

What he offers you

Allan's famous sporting image, popular persona and indisputable qualities as a witty and entertaining raconteur, makes him an ideal choice for motivational speaking, product endorsement, personal appearances, broadcasting and advertising.

How he presents

Allan is a very amusing speaker and his presentations are filled with a plethora of hilarious anecdotes from his impressive career as an international cricketer.

Topics

Host
Entertainment
After Dinner
Motivation

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Publications

1996

Silence of the Lamb