

Azi Ahmed

Muslim Girl With the SAS

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Azi Ahmed is one of the first two women in the world to have gone through SAS training. The experience was raw and changed her for life. Her autobiography tells the incredible true story of one woman's fight not only to be 'the best of the best', but to remain true to herself in the process.

"The more they say no, the more I say yes."

In detail

From winning a place at Central Saint Martin's whilst running her parents business as a teenager, to setting up an internet company from her bedroom with FTSE 100 clients, Azi is a member of the Special Forces, book author, parliamentary candidate and recently nominated for the GG2 Pride of Britain award. Her story has reached many worldwide, who have described Azi as an inspirational influence. Azi has now put all her life skills into building a better Britain. She is actively engaged with No.10 on building a dynamic society, the future of the British Army (Army 2020), and entering the world of TV script writing.

What she offers you

A fresh approach to success, Azi's life experiences' will provide a rare and engaging event for those who want to be inspired beyond the norm.

How she presents

Energetic and engaging story teller, Azi will have her audience at the edge of their seats. She will be an inspiration from the moment she steps onto the stage.

Topics

- Secret for Success
- Inspiration
- Diversity
- Entrepreneurship

Languages

She presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what she could bring to your event.

How to book her?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Publications

2015

Worlds Apart: Muslim girl with the SAS