IN DETAIL:

The champion racing car driver has won races across a diverse arena of Motorsport. From the Le Mans Series to GT and Nascar, he was also a stunt driving expert for the last three James Bond films and Star Wars movie, Han Solo. Ben's coaching prowess extends to a plethora of celebrities, including Tom Cruise, Cameron Diaz, Mark Wahlberg, Simon Cowell, Hugh Grant, Christian Bale, Matt Damon, and Jamiroquai's Tom Jones. As "The Stig," Ben served as the ultimate standard of speed, challenging all other drivers to match his pace, including Formula One World Champions Nigel Mansell and Jenson Button, who attempted but failed to surpass him. His career in stunt driving has also seen him become a familiar face on popular car shows like Jay Leno's Garage.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

By sharing his persona as The Stig, Ben explains that The Stig epitomised a superhuman quality that was effortless but he shared that the man behind the mask had to dig deep for every victory. He emphasises on hard work giving results, and having a drive that will continue to inspire both himself and his audiences.
