

Bennett Arron

Writer and Stand Up Comedian

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Bennett Arron is an award-winning writer, actor, author, stand-up comedian and presenter. He has written, directed and presented the documentary How To Steal An Identity for Channel 4, for which he was BAFTA shortlisted and was "Pick of the Day" in The Guardian and The Telegraph, described as "Fascinating and Disturbing" by the TV Times.

"Bennett's humour is a cross between the paranoid angst of Max Boyce and the colloquial humour of Woody Allen."

In detail

Bennett is a past winner of both the TAPS Comedy Writer of the Year Award and the BBC Wales New Writer's Award, has written for a number of BAFTA-winning programmes including Off Their Rockers, Hit The Road Jack and the BAFTA-winning V Graham Norton. He has also written episodes of the BAFTA-winning Slammer for the BBC. He has also presented the documentary The Kosher Comedian for the BBC and has toured the world as a comedian. Bennett has spoken at events throughout the UK as well as Italy, Poland, The Netherlands, South Africa and Australia.

What he offers you

Bennett Arron was the victim of identity theft. Today the experience has resulted in an acclaimed comedy show and praise for his funny, honest and hard-hitting keynotes on identity theft and fraud. Bennett is a recognised inspiration and conqueror of adversity.

How he presents

Being an Award-Winning Writer, Bennett is able to write bespoke material for events. He also performs as a comedian, after dinner speaker and host at hundreds of corporate events both in the UK and around the world.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Topics

Identity Theft
Comedian
After Dinner
Host and Awards