

Bill Bailey

Musical Comedy Genius

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Bill Bailey is a stand-up comedian, musician and actor. He is very well known for his appearances on Have I Got News for You, Never Mind the Buzzcocks, QI and Black Books. Bill was listed by The Observer as one of the 50 funniest acts in British Comedy in 2003. In 2007 and again in 2010, he was voted the 7th greatest stand-up comic on Channel 4's Greatest Stand-Ups. Bill is currently developing more ideas for film and television with his own production company, Glassbox Productions.

"Musical deity and comedic visionary"

In detail

Although a talented musician, Bill always felt an urge to slip jokes into the music. This didn't work out so, harbouring theatrical ambitions, he spent the early 80's touring with a Welsh Experimental theatre troupe, and appearing on stage with the Workers' Revolutionary Party. He finally fused the music, jokes and theatricality and became a stand-up comedian. He was given the award for the "best stand-up" at the British comedy awards in 1999.

What he offers you

His hilarious live stand-up shows have made him one of the most popular stand up comedian in the country and a popular choice at events around the country.

How he presents

Bill is brilliantly funny with a razor sharp wit and his performances are immensely entertaining and always well received.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Topics

Host
Entertainment
Awards