Founder, Symphony Nova Scotia

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Boris Brott is an accomplished conductor and communicator who is adept at connecting the worlds of music and business. Founder of the Symphony Nova Scotia, he enthuses music lovers around the world. Furthermore, thousands of executives from national and international organisations have profited from his lateral approach.

"Renowned maestro and conductor"

In detail

He has won many international prizes; most notably the gold medal in the Dimitri Mitropoulos Conductor's Competition in New York, where he assisted Leonard Bernstein. A frequent guest Conductor to orchestras around the world, he is also Artistic Director of numerous orchestras.

What he offers you

Comparing organisational and orchestral structures he refreshes your perspective and triggers a different way of looking at business issues. Through music he looks at the interdependency between teamwork and leadership, the link between creativity and sustainability, and the relationship between communication and performance.

How he presents

Involving you, he conducts a full symphony orchestra shown on a video screen, or even better accompanying an eleven piece live orchestra during his presentation.
