

Chris Hollins

Popular BBC Sports Presenter, Conference and Awards Host

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Chris Hollins is recognised as one of television's most popular sports presenters. He is one of the presenters of BT Sport Live and co-presents BBC One's Watchdog, Real Rescues, The Food Inspectors, Cash in the Attic for BBC One and Cash in the Celebrity Attic for BBC Two. In 2011, he was part of the BBC team covering The Royal Wedding and he also took part in Celebrity Antiques Road Trip for BBC Children In Need. In addition, he was part of the BBC's presentation team covering several of The Diamond Jubilee events, live for BBC One in June 2012.

"Chris Hollins is a highly talented and popular journalist, presenter and sportsman"

In detail

Chris Hollins began his career at Sky Sports in 1994, followed by spells at Channel One, GMTV, Meridian and Channel 5. A talented sportsman, Chris played football for Charlton, QPR and Aldershot. He also took part in Sky One's The Match, playing a full 90 minutes on the celebrity side. After graduating from Tonbridge School, he attended the University of Durham and later Oxford University where he gained a Cricket Blue. He has appeared in a cameo role in the feature film Run Fat Boy Run.

What he offers you

From the USA Masters Golf to the World Cup, to Royal Ascot and Wimbledon, Chris Hollins is a confident and experienced presenter and host with a library of tales from major national and international sports events and television.

How he presents

Chris Hollins is a genuinely likeable personality, with universal appeal to his wide ranging audiences.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Topics

Presenter

Awards

Host