A natural leader of people and processes

In detail

During his 8 years as Marketing director of Virgin Atlantic, Chris took the company from a single aircraft to loved international brand - and created Premium Economy, seat-back TV and on-board ice creams along the way. Chris is the founder of the Orange brand and directed what is considered to be one of the most successful business launches in the last 20 years. Chris also led the brand switch from 'On Digital' to 'ITV Digital', oversaw the brand merger of Lloyds Bank and TSB and as CEO of 118 118 delivered a masterclass in how to move from market entrant to market leader. From 2013 to 2015, Chris was the customer and marketing director for B&Q, responsible for several advertising drives including the Unleashed campaign of 2014. He is CEO of Famoss Ltd, a brand, customer and ideas consultancy. Since 2017 he is also CEO of MAV3RICK, a disruption specialists consultancy who advise on disruptive ideas, brands, communications and technologies.
