

Clem Chambers

CEO of Europe's Leading Stocks, ADVFN

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Clem Chambers is an author, journalist and CEO of ADVFN, Europe's leading stocks and markets website. A highly respected figure in the City of London, Clem became CEO of ADVFN in January of 2002 and steered the company from likely dot com failure into an international market leader spanning the globe.

"One of the world's favourite financial gurus"

In detail

Involved in the software industry for over 25 years, first as a pioneer of computer games, multimedia and the internet, Clem went on to co-found and float three start-up companies and was involved in a further two. A sought after media commentator, Clem is a regular guest on major television networks including CNBC (US, Europe, Asia, Arabia), Al-Jazeera, BBC, BNN and Fox News. Clem writes for Forbes and regularly writes for Nikkei BP, the Gulf News and The Scotsman as well as specialist trading and business publications Risk AFRICA, Traders and Your Trading Edge. He has written investment columns for Wired Magazine, which described him as a "Market Maven".
