

Darren Campbell MBE

Olympic Gold Medallist Sprinter, Coach, Mentor and Business Owner

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Darren Campbell MBE is a talent with a genuine winning mentality and commitment to put the work in to achieve the required outcome. Whether in his sprinting days, playing semi professional football or managing his sports supplement business, P-A-S he's all about careful planning, hard work and perfect execution. Darren retired from athletics in 2006. He will long be remembered as a sprinter with a special talent and personality who won medals at all four majors in addition to the golden night at the Athens Olympic Games in 2004. Darren works on the BBC as well as other media platforms.

"A very popular GB athlete"

In detail

Darren was a world class competitor in the 100m, the 200m and 4 x100m relay. Amongst his achievements, Darren won Olympic silver at the Sydney Games, a bronze medal in the 200m at the Commonwealth Games in his hometown of Manchester, and in the 2004 Olympics Darren was a member of the men's 4 x 100m relay squad whose speed and excellent baton changing took the gold medal. This was the first time a GB team had done so since 1912.

What he offers you

Darren's skills and insight into sprinting technique and handling pressure means he is in high demand as a pace and acceleration coach working with Premier League footballers and rugby professionals with great success.

How he presents

Darren is a very popular speaker who has a great story to tell. His presentations are delivered a very inspirational and superb way.

Topics

Sports
Planning and Preparation
A Winning Attitude
Fighting Back
Battling Through Difficult Time

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

watch video