

David Gower OBE

Former Cricket Player, TV Presenter and Author

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

David Gower is a media personality and is probably best known as England's second highest ever runs scorer in Test Match history. His stylish play took him to 18 Test Match 100s and 32 Tests as Captain of England. David was the correspondent for the Sunday Express for two years, has written columns for The Times, The Sunday Telegraph, The Sun and currently for The Sunday Times.

An icon of English Cricket

In detail

He was also correspondent for BA's skylines magazine for two and a half years. David has extended his broadcast work to include the popular quiz show They Think It's All Over, on which he was a resident team captain and location reports for the Holiday Program.

What he offers you

As an icon of British cricket, David offers audiences the benefit of his considerable expertise as captain of the international side. He shows how we can all benefit from strong leadership and effective teamwork.

How he presents

An excellent speaker, he entertains his audiences with his laid back humour and endless source of amusing anecdotes from his days at the crease and from his extensive travels.
