

The Rt Hon. Lord Hurd

Former UK Foreign and Commonwealth Secretary

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Douglas Hurd is a British Conservative politician and novelist, who served in the governments of Margaret Thatcher and John Major. Viewed as one of the Conservative Party's senior elder statesmen, he is a patron of the Tory Reform Group, and remains an active figure in public life. He is particularly noted for his advice when the World's political map was being dramatically re-drawn after the collapse of communism and the re-unification of Germany.

A compelling power of intellect and knowledge.

In detail

Douglas Hurd spent fourteen years as a professional diplomat. He entered politics as Political Secretary. In government, he served as Secretary of State for Northern Ireland. As Home Secretary, he promoted prison reform. During his memorable times as Foreign Secretary, under John Major, he fostered better relations with the European Community. Since retiring from Parliament, he has held senior positions in NatWest, Coutts & British Invisibles. He is also a Member of the Global Leadership Foundation, which promotes good governance around the world.

What he offers you

As a result of his long-standing career, he is highly perceptive of global issues. Drawing on his experience he explores political issues and potential solutions faced by the global economy.

How he presents

Relaxed and informed, he cuts through the fog and offers persuasive and rational observations.

Topics

North Atlantic Alliance
Future for World Free Trade
Promoting Global Prosperity
World Economics

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2010

Choose Your Weapons

2008

Robert Peel, a Biography

2003

Memoirs

The Palace of Enchantments

2002

Image in the Water

2001

Scotch on the Rocks

2000

Ten Minutes to Turn the Devil

1999

Truth Game