Felix Baumgartner is a skydiver and BASE jumper. Nicknamed "Fearless Felix" and "God of the skies", he made history in 2012 by breaking the world record for the highest-ever skydive, jumping from a balloon more than 39km (128,000 ft) up in the stratosphere and became the first person to break the speed of sound in freefall.

"Baumgartner is an extreme sports legend, and will go down as such in the history of extreme sports"

In detail

Felix began skydiving when he was 16, polishing his aero-acrobatic skills in the Austrian military's demonstration and competition team. In the 1990s, he moved from traditional skydiving to Base jumping, leaping off fixed objects and using a parachute to break the fall. He has completed many incredible feats in his BASE jumping career, broke two other world records (highest freefall and highest manned balloon flight) to complete his most daring mission to date. The daredevil skydiver and helicopter pilot has made a career out of pushing the boundaries of human flight. Felix's latest project is to head up a helicopter aerobatic team. He is one of only 3 pilots to be licenced to do this.
