

Gérard Houllier OBE

Former Manager of Liverpool FC & Former Manager & Technical Director of France

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Gérard Houllier OBE was National Technical Director of the French World Cup Winning Team of 1998. He is the former Manager of Liverpool Football Club, French Champions Lyon and Aston Villa FC. In 2012, Gérard became the Sporting Director at Salzburg FC in Austria.

"Part of a manager's role is to make players improve" Gérard Houllie

In detail

From 1982-1985, Gérard was the Manager of Lens, earning UEFA Cup qualification and from 1985-1986 he was Manager of Paris St. Germain, winning the French Championship in 1986. He worked as number two to the National French Team Head Coach, Michel Platini, for the European Championship of 1988 and 1992, later progressing to Head Coach of France. He was the Manager of Liverpool Football Club from 1998-2004 and under his leadership Liverpool became the first club to win three knock-out competitions in one season. In 2005 he became the Manager of French Champions Lyon and was manager of Aston Villa FC from September 2010 to June 2011. In 2012, Gérard became the Sporting Director at Salzburg FC in Austria. He is one of the most respected management figures in world football and one of the most knowledgeable people in the game. He was awarded an OBE in 2003.

What he offers you

Gérard will show how teamwork and man-management are the keys to successful organisation.

How he presents

An excellent speaker, Gérard has contributed to conferences and events all around Europe talking with authority about his experience in the high pressure of coaching high level football teams.

Topics

- Teamwork
- Leadership
- Winning
- How to Win a World Cup

Languages

Gérard presents in French and English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

watch video

Gerard gave a very good presentation. He was inspiring and the audience loved his sense of humour - Global Data Warehouser

