

James Martin

Celebrity Chef & TV Personality

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

James Martin is an immensely popular northern chef who has made a great impact since he began to appear on television in '96 and has rarely been off screen since. He is Presenter of BBC1's Saturday Kitchen, regularly attracting viewers in excess of 2.5 million. As well as his TV work, James is a keen journalist and writes a weekly column in the Mail on Sunday's Live magazine on cars and motoring, as well as writing food columns for BBC Good Food Magazine and Sky Magazine. 2008 saw the first James Martin magazine filled with delicious recipes and interesting interviews with the chefs.

"One of Britain's most popular television chefs"

In detail

He was a regular team member on Ready Steady Cook (BBC 2) and in 2006 gained a whole new army of fans with his new found prowess on the dance floor in Strictly Come Dancing where he reached the semi-finals. A successful businessman with interests in a hotel and restaurants, James' licensing enterprises include his range of small electricals with Wahl, Cookware, Knives and Kitchen Textiles with Stellar/Horwoods and Serveware with Denby, and his own range of cake mixes. James featured in a prime time BBC 2 special, The Real Italian Job. The show saw James live his dream of racing in the exclusive Millie Miglia race in Italy in a vintage sports car!
