"A dazzling hero of political incorrectness" The Daily Mail

In detail

For three years, Jeremy had his own chat show, Clarkson, he also hosted the topical panel show, Have I Got News For You and has appeared on the BBC series QI. Clarkson has presented a number of shows focused on history and in addition to television; he also had a small role in the UK release of the 2006 Disney Pixar movie Cars as the voice of Harv, Lightning McQueen's agent. He presented Top Gear from 1989 to 1999, in the programme's original format, and then again from 2002 to 2015, when it was relaunched in a new format after a brief period off the air. Since 2016 he presents together with Richard Hammond and James May his new show, The Grand Tour, on Amazon Video.

What he offers you

A professional television presenter, Jeremy Clarkson is an ideal choice as a conference or awards host and is a brilliant after dinner speaker.

How he presents

Although Clarkson is known to be opinionated and forthright in his views he is highly sort after as a speaker around the globe. With razor sharp wit his presentations are highly amusing and always entertaining if not a little controversial.
