

Jeremy Paxman

Journalist, Author & TV Presenter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Jeremy Paxman is an award-winning journalist, who began his career covering the Northern Ireland troubles in the 1970s, then joined Tonight and Panorama as an investigative reporter. After a spell as a foreign correspondent, he moved inside the studio on the Six O'Clock News and Breakfast Time.

"One of the UK's most renowned television presenters"

In detail

The former Newsnight anchor Jeremy Paxman is amongst the most respected and influential broadcasters in the UK renowned for his tough questioning of powerful figures of the day. Jeremy became synonymous with Newsnight over his 25-year tenure on the show. Some of his best-remembered interviews include his repeated questioning of Home Secretary Michael Howard, his listing of Richard Desmond's adult publications to Tony Blair and his political debate with Russell Brand. Jeremy has written several books and also presented the documentary series and wrote the accompanying book 'Empire', a study of the good and bad sides of Britain's imperial history, and likewise the series and book 'Britain's Great War'.

What he offers you

A skilled facilitator and an excellent communicator, Jeremy's unique presentation style make him highly sought after not only as a conference moderator but also as a highly amusing after dinner speaker.

How he presents

Using his well-honed skills as an interviewer and his razor sharp wit Jeremy is a brilliant a facilitator. With a blend of hard-hitting and sarcastic questions, Jeremy enlivens every event with his witty and entertaining style.

Topics

Current Affairs
The Business of Politics
Managing the Media
Communication
Host/Facilitator

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2013

Great Britain's Great War

2011

Empire

2009

The Victorian