

Jill Douglas

BBC, BT Sport and ITV Sports Presenter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Jill Douglas is a sports presenter and currently working for the BBC, BT Sport and ITV. The former Sky Sports presenter whose passion for sport, in particular rugby, is well known, became the first female presenter on BBC's Rugby Special before spending four years as a presenter with Sky Sports. In 2003 Jill re-joined the BBC as one of the main presenters of rugby union, cycling and other events such as the Olympic Games. She also appears on BBC Radio 5 Live's Fighting Talk.

"An experienced sports reporter"

In detail

Jill has worked as the BBC's cycling and bowls presenter, she was a key member of the BBC team at the 2004 Olympics, 2006 Commonwealth Games and has worked on Wimbledon, the London Marathon, the World Equestrian Games and Burghley Horse Trials. In addition, she has been a touchline reporter and presenter at the RBS 6 Nations tournaments, the Autumn Internationals and worked on the 2003 World Cup and Lions tour of New Zealand for BBC Radio Five Live.

What she offers you

With her knowledge of sport and experience in corporate entertaining, Jill is well suited to MC, host award ceremonies and question and answer sessions as well as speaking at business and sporting conferences.

How she presents

Jill is a multi-faceted television personality who offers experience and prestige attained by working as a highly respected TV presenter. A talented and versatile presenter Jill is in great demand from audiences across the country.

Languages

She presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what she could bring to your event.

How to book her?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Topics

Awards
Host
MC
Q&A Sessions
Sporting Conferences