"Unalloyed fun" Chortl

In detail

Jimmy can be seen on series 3 of BBC Three's Live at the Electric and has appeared on Russell Howard's Good News, as well as co-presenting the Dave Gorman radio show on Absolute Radio. He has also supported Chris Addison and Simon Bird on tour and is a highly sought after TV warm-up. Jimmy recently returned from the Edinburgh festival, where his fourth solo show Delusions of Candour received rave reviews. Before that Jimmy completed a triumphant tour of Australia, where he performed at the Adelaide, Melbourne, Sydney and Perth Comedy Festivals, where he was nominated for Best International Act. He also made his second acclaimed appearance on the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Gala, and went on the road with the prestigious Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow.

What he offers you

Delivered with a down-to-earth, likeable charm and just the right amount of enthusiasm, Jimmy has the knack of making any audience feel like friends. He combines a bright disposition with a disdain for much of the modern world.

How he presents

Painfully brilliant, pathologically charming and frequently deluded, Jimmy McGhie is a popular choice at events around the country.

Languages

He presents in English.
