

Jo Caulfield

Highly Talented British Comedian, Actress & Writer

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Jo Caulfield is a highly talented performer, probably best-known for her legendary one-woman shows. A trained actress, as well as acting in her own Radio show: It's That Jo Caulfield Again, she has appeared in several sitcoms and has appeared regularly on our screens as a guest, presenter and has also been seen on numerous Talking Head shows due to her wide ranging knowledge of music, comedy and all popular culture. A stalwart of the circuit, she is, "quite simply, a damn funny woman" (The Scotsman).

"Jo Caulfield is an inspiration to all would-be female comedians" The Observer

In detail

After being advised that regular compering was one of the best ways to improve as a comic, Jo bought a cheap microphone and a small amplifier and opened her own comedy club in Hampstead. It was getting up on stage at her own club every week for 5 years that gave Jo Caulfield her ability for bantering with the audience and improvising on their comments. She was writer and star of her own critically acclaimed Radio 4 comedy show: It's That Jo Caulfield Again, was Programme Consultant on all 5 series of the BAFTA award-winning So Graham Norton (Channel 4) and was Head Writer on Ruby Wax's BBC1 The Waiting Game. Jo has also written for Joan Rivers, Anne Robinson and Denise Van Outen.

What she offers you

Jo Caulfield is in regular demand as an awards host and after-dinner speaker at corporate events across the country and one of the most highly sought after TV warm-up artists. She has spoken at corporate dinners, business lunches, award ceremonies, charity events, St. Andrew's nights and many more. She has also given 'The Response on Behalf of The Lassies' at Burns Suppers.

How she presents

The minute Jo Caulfield hits the stage you know you're in for a good time, her material full of the assured gags of a consummate performer. For those not in the know, her stage persona is that of the cynical, slightly bitchy mate always ready to arch an eyebrow if you're boring her and scold with her barbed wit: sharp, witty and deliciously nasty.
