

John McCarthy

Former Beirut Hostage, Journalist and Author

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

In 1986, John McCarthy was on his first foreign assignment to Beirut. He was snatched at gunpoint from his car and held hostage for 5 years (1,943 days). His is an extraordinary story of courage, despair, hope and finally happiness. John's release was the first in a series in 1991 which resulted in freedom for nearly all the Westerners held captive in Lebanon.

"Sometimes I did look over the parapet of fear - and down into terror itself"

In detail

Public expectations of a re-kindling of the romance between John McCarthy and former fiancée Jill Morrell who had campaigned for his release were high. The couple wrote a book together about Mr McCarthy's ordeal but they separated amicably in 1994. John McCarthy married Anna Ottewill in April 1999.
