

June Sarpong MBE

TV Presenter and Social Entrepreneur

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

June Sarpong MBE is a media phenomenon and is the only host of her generation that is equally comfortable interviewing politicians, celebrities and members of the public. She is the Co-Founder of the WIE Network (Women: Inspiration & Enterprise). WIE first launched in NYC in 2010 and then in the UK in 2012.

"One of the most recognizable faces of British television"

In detail

June has enjoyed a 20-year career which has already seen her become one of the UK's most intelligent and dynamic young hosts. She has taken on the world's most challenging live audiences, hosting the 2005's major Make Poverty History event in London's Trafalgar Square and presenting at the UK leg of Live Earth in 2007. In 2008 alongside Will Smith she also hosted Nelson Mandela's 90th Birthday celebrations in front of 30,000 people in London's Hyde Park. Alongside Mark Florman of the BVCA, June is the Co-Founder of the DNA Summit (Decide Now Act). The primary aim of DNA is to bring together some of the most innovative minds in the world to generate ideas and initiatives that will effect lasting social change by working together to tackle some of humanity's most pressing issues.

What she offers you

June was a panellist on ITV's flagship daytime shows Loose Women and is currently on Sky News' new weekly current affairs show The Pledge. She is currently working on her first book 'Diversify', which will be planned for release in August 2017.

How she presents

Lively and energetic, the effervescent June has gained a reputation for being stylish, easy going and hard-working making her an ideal choice whether as a panellist, presenting awards or hosting large events.
