

Lucy Hockings

Lead Presenter BBC World News

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Lucy Hockings is a lead presenter on BBC World News, anchoring its flagship programme GMT. She has anchored rolling coverage for the BBC on all the major news events of the past decade - from the Asian tsunami to the 2014 Gaza conflict and the recent terrorist attacks in Paris. Over the years Lucy has interviewed everyone from presidents and prime ministers to film stars and decision makers. She has made contacts in governments, NGO's and international organisations who act as valuable on-air sources.

"One of the UK's most versatile and experienced presenters"

In detail

Lucy also anchors major news events on location; from Capitol Hill in Washington to the European Parliament in Brussels bringing live and breaking news from the heart of the story. She regularly represents the BBC at international conferences working with organisations such as the United Nations, Chatham House and the EBRD and is an experienced moderator. With years of experience in the corporate field, Lucy regularly hosts awards ceremonies and chairs conferences and events for private clients around the world. She was awarded the prestigious position of Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum in recognition of her work in broadcasting with young, aspiring journalists.
