

Lucy Porter

Comedian and Writer

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Lucy Porter is the loveable and hugely likeable comedian who is under way with her sell out 2015 Tour Me Time having completed a tour of her 2013 show Northern Soul throughout the UK, after a popular run in Edinburgh Festival Fringe. Previously, she toured her show Lucy Porter - People Person throughout the UK in 2012. This followed her numerous sell out Edinburgh shows including Fools Gold, The Bare Necessities and Lucy Porter's Love In which she took to venues across UK for a full nationwide 40 date sell out tour.

"She is like your witty friend who's always brilliant company down the pub." THE SCOTSMAN"

In detail

She won the title of Celebrity Mastermind Champion 2009, in a special edition of the show for Children in Need. She has also appeared on Mock the Week, Argumental for the Dave Channel and appeared on Have I got News for You. Lucy has also been a guest on Clive Anderson's Chat Room, Never Mind the Buzzcocks and What the Dickens? She has added much to the store of human knowledge by appearing on yet more 100 Best things shows (will they never end?), and offered herself up for humiliation on Rob Brydon's BBC show Annually Retentive. Lucy has further developed her skills as a most sought-after comedy writer. Lucy was one of the lead writers on ITV1's satirical animation series Headcases.

What she offers you

There's always a philosophical element to Lucy's shows, covering the topics that matter in her life. Lucy has a warm and witty style and delivers her thoughts and observations on life, love and how odd the world can be like a long-standing and sometimes indiscrete friend.
