

Mark Durden-Smith

TV Presenter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Mark Durden-Smith is a British television presenter best known for presenting ITV shows such as I'm a Celebrity... Get me out of here!, Hell's Kitchen and Soapstar Superstar. He also leads ITV's coverage of the Boat Race, for which he won a Royal Television Society award. Mark currently presents the Aviva Premiership Rugby highlights on ITV.

"One of Britain's most versatile presenter"

In detail

Mark's on-screen career started in sports, fronting Sky's Bafta-winning rugby coverage from 1997, and he then moved into entertainment. In 2007 he presented a new series for ITV1 called Wish You Were Here - Now And Then and ITV2's Soapstar Superstar Bonus Tracks. Mark has hosted a variety of events, for clients including O2 (Scrum In the Park), Britvic, The Carphone Warehouse, Jet Airways, The Police Bravery Awards and the Nottingham Restaurant Awards.

What he offers you

Mark's charisma, enthusiasm and competence as host or facilitator have impressed and delighted a variety of corporate clients.

How he presents

Mark is known for his charm and spontaneous wit that makes him a natural choice for corporate events. His humour and light hearted but professional approach works really well.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Topics

Host
Entertainment
After Dinner
Awards