

Mark Pollock

Explorer, Innovator & Collaboration Catalyst

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Mark Pollock, unbroken by blindness competed in ultra- endurance races, being the first blind person to race to the South Pole. Mark then suffered a tragic fall from a second storey window. A pioneer, he is exploring the frontiers of spinal cord injury through physical therapy and robotic technology.

"An expert in resilience, innovation and collaboration"

In detail

Mark is now exploring the intersection where humans and technology collide and catalysing collaborations that have never been done before. Through the Mark Pollock Trust, he is unlocking $1 billion to cure paralysis in our lifetime. Selected by the World Economic Forum as a Young Global Leader, Mark is on the Board of the Christopher and Dana Reeve Foundation (USA) and is a Wings for Life Ambassador (UK). Mark is the subject of the acclaimed documentary called Unbreakable, and is a TED, Davos, World Economic Forum speaker. Mark has been awarded honorary doctorates by The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland and also from Queens University Belfast.
