"UK's soul Queen"

In detail

The range, power, and sheer soulfulness of Mica Paris' singing made an immediate impact on the UK music scene in 1988 when she released her debut, platinum-selling album, So Good, from which she had her first top ten hit, My One Temptation. In 2002 Mica extended her talents into broadcasting and presented The Gospel of Gospel, a TV documentary tracing the influence of gospel on American popular music with interviews with Ray Charles, BB King, Al Green, Issac Hayes and Chaka Khan. She also hosted the popular Gospel Singer of the Year competition for UK TV. Mica has also been honoured as an "Icon" at Windsor Castle by the Duke of Edinburgh.
