

Patrick Grant

Norton & Sons of Savile Row, Creative Director

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Patrick Grant is a Creative Director and the co-presenter of BBC's Great British Sewing Bee. He has been named in Esquire Magazine's Most Stylish Man in the World. In 2009 he re-launched the historic British sporting and military tailoring house of E. Tautz as a men's ready to wear collection.

"One of the most stylish men in the world"

In detail

Patrick has worked in a number of different industries before a passion for clothing, craftsmanship and old British brands lead him to Savile Row tailors, Norton & Sons which he took over in 2005. He won the British Fashion Council's Menswear Designer of the Year award in 2010 for his work on E. Tautz. He was also named Retailer of the Year at the 2008 Scottish Fashion Awards. In 2012 he won the BFC's Fashion Forward award and was shortlisted for Designer of the Year at the Scottish Fashion Awards and International Designer of the Year at the WGSN Global Fashion Awards. Patrick is a regular in best dressed lists in the UK, he has appeared for the past five years in GQ's 50 Best Dressed Men.

What he offers you

In his speeches, Patrick discusses his accidental entrepreneurship and the importance of creativity in business. He stresses the importance of doing one simple thing well, paring down your brand and listening to the needs of the customer. It doesn't matter if it's engineering or fashion: it's about making the product amazing.

How he presents

Patrick has inspired people his whole career, he is an articulate speaker and offers great insight into the world of design, innovation and brand creation.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Topics

The Retail Revolution
Creativity and Innovation
Fashion
Entrepreneurial Spirit