

Paul Breitner

German Football Legend

Paul Breitner is one of the most skilled football players of all time.

Paul Breitner is considered one of the most successful football players and can look back on an outstanding national and international career. Nowadays, he is a highly sought-after media personality and commentator at sports events around the globe.

TOPICS:

- Motivation
- Teamwork
- Sport and Business
- Success at the Highest Level
- The Importance of Sports in the Society

LANGUAGES:

He presents in German, English and Spanish.

PUBLICATIONS:

1982 Kopfball

1981 Ich will kein Vorbild sein
(biography)

IN DETAIL:

One of Germany's most extraordinary and multifaceted players, he was capped 48 times for his country. In his long and successful career, Paul won almost everything there was to win. His football career lasted from the early 70's to the early 80's mainly playing for Bayern Munich and Real Madrid. Overall he played 285 Bundesliga games and scored 93 goals. Paul was considered a rebel and his reputation as a controversial thinker remains with him to this day. He is a founding member of the Children's Sports Foundation and an advisor to the Board of Bayern Munich.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

He offers audiences exciting insights into the world of sport and shows how motivation and determination help to achieve ambitious targets.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Paul Breitner is a very charismatic individual. His outstanding leadership skills and dynamic presentations energise and captivate audiences worldwide.