Renowned English Barrister & Californian Attorney

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Paul Wright is an English Barrister and Californian Attorney. In 1990, he formed Paul J. Wright & Associates, California specialising in domestic and international transactional and litigation matters. He has successfully represented many companies and individuals in the US and UK. Currently in his second term as President of the British American Business Council, Los Angeles, Paul Wright also served as its Chairman from 2008 to 2009. In 2009, he founded InternationalEsq and formed an ongoing joint venture with Daily Variety to address cutting edge international legal developments.

"His unique negotiation skills are second to none"

In detail

Paul Wright is on the Board of BritWeek and serves as its General Counsel. Britweek focuses on the British contribution to film, fashion and music in southern California. In 2011, he co-chaired the BritWeek Gala Dinner, which honoured Timothy J. Leiweke, President & CEO of the Anschutz Entertainment Group Worldwide, and in 2012 he co-chaired the same Dinner, honouring Piers Morgan, CNN Presenter and Host. In 2011, Mr. Wright was appointed to the Board of the Variety Foundation. He serves as its General Counsel and co-chairs the annual Variety Venture Capital New Media Summits (2011-2012).

What he offers you

Paul Wright's domestic and international experiences, not only as an attorney or barrister but also as a businessman help organisations and individuals in a variety of transactional matters. In particular businesses who are or intend to place themselves in either the USA or UK will learn from his tremendous insights and experiences about how to achieve a successful transaction. He demonstrates how the power of negotiation creates success. By nature, executives can also benefit from his knowledge in legal developments across borders in the media and other industries.

How he presents

Paul Wright is renowned for his clear and fluent speaking style and is in great demand to speak at conferences all over the world.
