

The Lord Dannatt

Former British Army Chief of the General Staff

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Lord Dannatt is a decorated soldier, and a leading authority on military and defence issues. His distinguished service in Northern Ireland and Kosovo, and as professional head of the British Army, mean he is well-placed to offer penetrating insights into military leadership and strategy.

"Strategic - Operational - Tactical: A truly charismatic leader!"

In detail

Lord Dannatt is one of the most successful Generals of our times. Highly respected by his peers and governments, Lord Dannatt was a key advisor to the David Cameron defence team in 2009/2010. A frequent and popular commentator on current affairs and security issues, his views regularly feature in the media. In 2010 Lord Dannatt published 'Leading from the Front'. He became a member of the House of Lords in 2011. After retiring from the Army in 2009, he was appointed Constable of the Tower of London. In 2016 Lord Dannatt published his second book 'Boots on the Ground' and became president of the charity 'Help for Heroes'. Drawing from his 40 years of military career, Lord Dannatt offers organisations invaluable advice on topics such as leadership, global issues, communication, risk and security.
